CAL TRANS EMPLOYEE ORDERED SUBJECT TO GPS MONITORING AND ELECTRONIC MONITORING FOLLOWING INDICTMENT FOR RECEIPT AND POSSESSION OF CHILD PORNOGRAPHY

FRESNO—United States Attorney McGregor W. Scott announced today that a detention hearing was held for DARYL CURTIS GLENN, 44, of Lemoore, California in federal court, charged in a two-count indictment with receiving and possessing child pornography. The indictment alleges that from on or about October 25, 2007 until on or about January 29, 2008, GLENN received images involving the sexual exploitation of minors. In addition, the indictment alleges that on or about January 29, 2008, he was in possession of such images.

This case is the product of an extensive investigation by the FBI Cybercrimes Task Force in Fresno, California. The Task Force is comprised of the FBI, the U.S. Secret Service, the California Department of Justice, the Fresno Police Department, and the Fresno Sheriff's Department.

According to court documents filed in this case on January 29, 2008, the FBI Cybercrimes Task Force executed a federal search warrant on GLENN's residence based on information that GLENN was obtaining child pornography using Peer-to-Peer technology. Peer-to-Peer is a publicly available software that allows networked computer users, connected to the Internet, to share many types of files with each other. On-site forensic examination revealed numerous images of child pornography depicting the sexual exploitation of minors contained on GLENN's computer hard drive and CDs.

GLENN has been in federal custody since his arrest on January 31, 2008. Today, a detention hearing was held where the government requested that he remain detained as a danger to the community. The government argued that initial forensic examination of GLENN'S computer hard drive revealed that he had downloaded a video on "how to" molest young girls, using common household items, and that, therefore, he poses a danger to children. GLENN'S attorney argued for release. Following the hearing, the Honorable Magistrate Judge Sandra M. Snyder ordered him released on electronic monitoring, to include monitoring via a Global Positioning System (GPS) and stated that GLENN will be closely monitored by the PreTrial Services Officer. He will remain detained pending the availability of a GPS device.

According to Assistant United States Attorney Sherrill A. Carvalho, who is prosecuting the case, if convicted of the charges as alleged in the indictment, GLENN faces up to 20 years imprisonment and a mandatory minimum of five years imprisonment for receipt of material involving the sexual exploitation of minors. Possession of child pornography is punishable for up to 10 years in prison. Both offenses provide for a possible lifetime term of supervised release and a fine of up to $250,000. The actual sentence, however, will be determined at the discretion of the court after consideration of the Federal Sentencing Guidelines, which take into account a number of variables, and any applicable statutory sentencing factors.

The charges are only allegations and the defendant is presumed innocent until and unless proven guilty beyond a reasonable doubt.
